

Book An Expert: Sample Briefing Contents

Infrastructure/PPP Sector Performance and Outlook

Sample content

- Constrains of infrastructure finance in Malaysia.
- Importance of economic, technical and financial feasibility of a project – minding the gap.
- Funding and structuring a project finance deal – common pitfalls.
- Rating trends – infrastructure and sub-sectors such as power, toll roads, PPPs/PFIs etc.
- Reeling effects of COVID-19 strain.
- Prioritization of economically viable projects and risk allocation.
- Infrastructure bonds – from bright spot of the Sukuk/Bond market now on its way out?

Sample slides

RAM

Relooking privatization models of infrastructure projects – what matters most to investors/lenders?

Transparency around project selection, pipeline and prioritisation

Bidding by tender vs. direct negotiation – clear evaluation criteria

Deep, matured and liquid domestic currency funding (via banks or capital markets)

Political will to promote fair and clear policy, regulatory and legal climate

Prioritization of economically viable project or 'mind the gap'

Reeling effects of COVID-19 strain